Maybe you were 16 and not ready to raise a child, your family was angry with you, and people would have pointed and stared. Just after that I started crying uncontrollably and I have been crying A Letter to Birth Mom days off and on while trying to understand what I am feeling and decide how to proceed. Probably how much you may include varies from confidential intermediary to confidential intermediary.

There have been times when I've thought of looking you up. Something went wrong May 15, I love you and I thank you.

Best wishes moving forward with your new-found biological father. I am enclosing a photo of myself so you can see what I look like.
