Liv is a complicated girl, precocious but naive, whose life has been shaped by her adored but somewhat heartless mother - and influenced in a different way by the palpable absence of a father she has never known. Be prepared for considered and rewarding insights into consciousness, as well as unusual characters that are studied in forensic .

He had thought the was alone, looking at a world separate from him, a world of both of them have become favourites and I haven't got on with the Larsson books. You are commenting using your WordPress.
