Many patients have taught their physicians new information on treatment for COPD via medications, physical therapy and oxygen therapy, Nett says. In Dr. Hewasthesinglemostimportantpersoninestablishinghomeoxygentherapy. He was pleased to play a small part in initiating a change in physician practice. Next there is the odyssey of a politically active LTOT user who decided in to challenge the inherent difficulties of flying to Eastern Europe while using LTOT from 2 portable oxygen concentrators. TodaythereareproposalsformoreoxygenstudiestohelpestablishLTOT.Usual patients are very adaptive to their own situation and tend to overcome any negative. Some Christmas present, although my wife tells me that at the time I was not too happy about having to use oxygen!
