I feel like this game became a poster child recently for how not to make a game. I've tried 5 times and it's hard to first get onto the log but if you do, when you get just past that spear tree it shows you a loading screen picture and that's The Troll and I. Hardware Hardware.

Popular user-defined tags for this product: ? But the sluggish controls make Twist after twist is introduced without seeming rhyme or reason, almost all of them completely untethered from the mystery behind the island. Other strange glitches are common, like the random, blinding white shapes that sometimes appear on the screen. Order Now on. Troll And I tries too many things at the same time. The hand to hand combat was much the same, but against the monsters, it reminded me of Shadow of Mordor, except not as fast and furious.
