We invested in bigger and better printers, event equipment, marketing materials, banners and so forth, but this investment also takes up space. In order to be successful in your event planning business, you need to learn to prioritize leads to understand who to spend your time with and who to let go. There are also tons of online things you can use, but for me... Simply look for ways in which to be helpful. Knowing your ideal client will help you recognize them when you see.
