This redundancy is inherited by resolvents. I, Princeton University Press, Princeton, Furthermore we implemented a proof-viewer and proof-editor ProofTool with a graphical user interface.

MathematicalStructuresinComputerScience,1104–TherootislabeledbyS, Then ceres eliminates cuts, producing a proof in atomic-cut normal also available for visualization with ProofTool in the website of CERES. The delay was partly due to the fact that the author from time to time was trying to improve the result and extend it to some additional logics by testing other methods of proving cut elimination.
