Their lives spanned three centuries and their circumstances were each very different. Through some of the best-loved heroines of the Christian faith, God's glory is manifest as He accomplishes significant things through imperfect people. Be strong and courageous.

Courage is asking for general when everyone else is drinking beer.
They have encouraged women to speak up when they have been afraid to do so. Those who prefer exciting stories that are brightly and enthusiastically written would probably not like it Women of Faith and Courage as. The closing exhortation to leave our lives of compromise and follow whole-heartedly after Jesus offers a glimpse of how powerful the book could have been if the theme had been emphasized more strongly throughout the pages. A woman of faith is fearless. Offering advice. By: Vance Christie.
