The Epistle on Legal Theory is the oldest surviving Arabic work on Islamic legal theory. Taxes may be applicable at checkout. The anthology includes works ranging from early Bedouin poems that evoke desert life, to poems of love, comic verses, fairy tales, and samples of literary criticism. This new translation by a leading scholar of Shafi'i and his thought makes available in lucid, modern English one of the earliest complete works on Islamic law—one that is centrally important for the formation of Islamic legal thought and the Islamic legal tradition.
