The emerging Cold War and advent of nuclear weapons presented obstacles to peace unprecedented in the history of European peace activism. The considerable number of peace activists affiliated with both the DFG and the Deutsche Friedensunion DFU – to name only one organization in which socialists were active – requires serious consideration. Just as the Cold War engendered the division of Germany, it catalyzed the integration of the fledgling West German state into a military-strategic front against Soviet communism. TheGalvestonDailyNews,Vol.Laafatowalk;G. According to Kurt Sontheimer, no topic preoccupied the German public so intensely between and as rearmament. The term "fifth wall" is often used by analogy with the "fourth wall" for a metaphorical barrier in engagement with a medium. Reiterating Schulte's emphasis on context, Riemeck warned against dogmatic approaches to the question of violence.
