We can take care of all of this on your behalf, liaising with the State to get it all. Celia should include a Schedule C in her yearly federal individual tax return, showing the net profits minus expenses or losses of her sole proprietorship. The reason is that both LLC members and partners get to count their pro rata share of all money borrowed by the business, not just loans personally made by the member or partner, in computing how much of any loss allocated to them by the business they can deduct in a given year on their individual income tax returns.

Shareholders may even have to pledge equity in a house or other personal asset

Experienced After 1 million LLCs, we make sure it's done right, giving you complete peace of mind. What about the old bugaboo of corporate double taxation? While keeping it easily accessible is less important, it could be expensive to redraft if it is lost in a fire or flood.

There may be others, however, who fall into this group. Each has her own clients. LLCs in action.
