We close ourselves off from the best parts of life—the parts that make it meaningful—and we fail to realize that even if we leave the armor on, we may still lose our lives in battle. If we are ever to truly experience intimacy, we must first move beyond the pubescent notion that sex and intimacy are synonymous.

The best part of being human is being able to connect with other humans. In short, your email address will not be published. When the rest of the social world seems paired up like Noah's Ark, you can feel sorely tempted to lower your standards just so you can have someone in your life -- not exactly a prescription for successful intimacy: "Darling, I settled for you. Other offers may also be available. Relationships are challenging over the long term. But when you look at meta-analyses of thousands and thousands of couples you find that similarity is insignificant.
