I met up with Gideon to get his reflections on where our town has been, and where he sees us going. AK May 28, at pm. But he was not so affected as to forget to press a greenback into the fervent hand of old Crawford, who walked with him a space down the lane for old time's sake and out of sheer gratitude. It is difficult to classify and compare the ships and tonnage on the present water. Leaving out of count the places, -London, Belgium and such, -where people live not on resources under their feet, but on resources carried in and out, the filling up of the world has happened so far in only a few crowded areas of India, China, Java and the like. He was always the friend and earnest supporter of our work. The open river and Lake Ontario give unimpeded navigation for ships needing twenty-seven feet. A gig with its lamps burning like twin stars stood waiting for someone by the keel of human nature. In the East there are ever so many people interested directly or indirectly in maintaining protective duties, huge industries such as the automobile and implement industries: whole towns that are tariff towns like Oshawa and Windsor: farming areas around them interested in the "home market" of their own centre more than in selling to the foreigner.
