One more secret: I used to feel that I am playing with Krishna as a friend Remember my wish? Can't see the dawn from the angle of dusk Even harder to believe-- it could see me? Gotconfused? Joint Poetry Book take time and have patience to read it. Now my mother wanted me to get married and settled. The dawn unfolds beyond my fractured windowpane and breezes tease while drapes, like serpents, slip aside exposing worlds that race and run aground, insane, displaying scenes obscene that savants strive to mask and hide.
