Worse still, given that, in every society, more "have-nots" of everything worth having exist than "haves," the politically talented who have little or no inhibition against taking property and lording it over others will have a clear advantage over those with such scruples. From what I can discern that lack of prioritization of justice is the main reason why we have a biased Court.

This argument had its clearest and purest exposition in the work of Wilhelm von Humboldt, John Locke. The public actually tends to elect the representative who is most likely to bring home the bacon. Humboldt, Wilhelm von Oxford University Press. It is the constitution that keeps the three branches of government in check.
