I think you really accurately capture the helplessness people feel when a loved one is struggling with any form of memory loss. For ultimate completion We shall really have to wait Until the Day of Judgment comes. Songs -- Texts.

Did your manuscript contain a lot of art notes? One contemplates with nervousness, with horror and dismay The juvenile behaviour of the parents of today. Psychology experts we often perplex And doctors have warned us we'll end up as wrecks. Fate may often treat me meanly, But I keenly Pursue A little mirage in the blue.
