Grade Level: 1 - 4. He introduces his comic book sensibilities, which fit perfectly with the goofiness that Morris is trying to convey to his younger readers, without becoming too goofy. For instance, when Lancelot is pictured with an arrow sticking out of his behind, the entire scene is beautifully rendered with bare trees and tall grasses. You've successfully reported this review. The story's take on fate and our the ability to control one's destiny is a bit too convoluted for an eight year old to understand.
